

Śrī Bālājī & Lakṣmījī Māhā Abhiṣekam

A CONSECRATION AND PŪJĀ TO THIS FORM OF ŚRĪ VIṢṆŪ,
ALSO KNOWN AS LORD VENKATEṢWARĀ, AND HIS DIVINE
CONSORTS, LAKṢMĪ DEVĪ AND BHŪ DEVĪ

Join us for this most powerful ceremony to bring in Peace and Prosperity in your lives and those of your loved ones.

- The Abhiṣekam ceremony will be performed by pouring five different ingredients on the three idols.
- The consecration using one ingredient at a time blesses the participant with specific benefits. Shubhrajī will explain the ritual and its relevance in our life.
- It is believed that watching this ceremony when the offerings are being poured over the idols purifies the devotee's mind, and creates a vibration of sanctity in the heart.
- By participating in this event, the devotee invokes the Divine Blessings of Lord Bālājī and His Consorts for protection from the adverse effects of life's challenges.
- The compounded fruit of this five-fold Abhiṣekam is Peace and Prosperity.

PEACE OF MIND, PEACE FOR THE LAND,
PROSPERITY, PROTECTION FOR SELF AND FAMILY, GOOD HEALTH, SPIRITUAL PROGRESS.
REMOVAL OF OBSTACLES IN CAREER, FINANCES
AND PERSONAL AREAS OF OUR LIVES.

- Śrī Devī or Goddess Lakṣmī gives us the blessings of abundance and prosperity. Bhū Devī or Goddess of the Earth blesses us with peace for the land we live in. When both Consorts are pleased, it is believed that Bālājī Bhagavān Himself fulfills the devotee's wishes.
- As the Abhiṣekam is performed, the priests will be chanting the Pañca Sūktam (five hymns) in Sanskrit.
- Participants will offer flowers as the 108 names of the deities are being chanted and do pūjā in their personal plates during the ceremony, guided by the priests.

All participants must be pre-registered.
Seating is based on your date of registration.
