8:00 am to 9:15 am Hong Kong time zone

Ādi Śaṅkarā's crisp style of precision is visible in this prayer, which is a famous hymn recited by students of Vedānta early in the morning. In the three verses of this prayer, Śaṅkara explains the essence of Advaita Vedānta.

Excerpt from Kamakoti.org: The first thoughts, words and actions of everyday exert a great influence on the life of the individual. If they are consecrated and made divine, they will pave the way for spiritual illumination. The prayer at dawn is profoundly significant in that the dawn is the outer symbol of the inner awakening.

Shubhrajī unwraps each verse revealing its joyous contemplation of the True Self within each of us. The teaching will include a short meditation each day.
