A pūjā to bring joy into our lives by maximizing the benefits of the planetary influences and minimizing the effects of their non-beneficial configurations for us and our loved ones.

"Nava" means nine. "Graha" means planets. As per Vedic Astrology, there are nine planets that influence our lives. The position of each planet at the time of human birth influences a person's nature, mood and behavior in either an uplifting or negative way. Any improper planetary alignment is called a doṣa / "dosha". A doṣa can be mitigated by invoking the relevant planet through the corresponding prayers (mantras), offerings and the relevant fire ritual. The obstacles are reduced or even eliminated, paving the way for a better life that also helps in spiritual growth.

Sūrya /Sun: for greater self-confidence, fame and leadership

Candra / Moon: for mental peace and stability

Aṅgāraka / Mars: for enhanced energy and power

Budha / Mercury: for a sharp intellect and improved communication skills

Gurū / Jupiter: for knowledge, good progeny and wealth

Śukra / Venus: for good married life, prosperity and luxury

Śani /Saturn: for removal of obstacles at both professional and personal levels

Rāhu / South Node: for victory over our enemies both internal and external

Ketu / North Node: for good health, long life and prestige

A short pūjā (ritual) at the main altar to Śrī Ganeṣa and Lord Śiva, followed by chanting of the mantras (verses) for each planet, with flower offerings.

Simultaneously, in your own home, you can offer flower petals or akṣta (rice) to the image of each planet on the Navagraha photo, sent by us, which you can download.

Concluding with a short homaṃ or fire ritual and āratī.

Pūjā officiated by Sri Pradyuman Trivedi, renowned priest/astrologer from Ahmedabad, India along with his priests and Live Pūjā conducted by Shubhrajī.
